BEFORE THE
BOARD OF GOVERNORS OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Docket No. 13-001-B-HC

In the Matter of

JPMORGAN CHASE & CO.
New York, New York

CONSENT ORDER

WHEREAS, JPMorgan Chase & Co., New York, New York (“JPMC”), a registered bank holding company, owns and controls JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., Columbus, Ohio (the “Bank”); other U.S. insured depository institutions; various Edge Act corporations organized under section 25A of the Federal Reserve Act (12 U.S.C. § 611 et seq.); and multiple other nonbank subsidiaries;

WHEREAS, JPMC is a large, complex organization that has a number of separate business lines and legal entities;

WHEREAS, JPMC has adopted a firmwide risk management program designed to identify and manage risks across the consolidated organization;

WHEREAS, JPMC has adopted a firmwide internal audit program;

WHEREAS, prior to May 2012, JPMC’s Chief Investment Office (the “CIO”) managed a large synthetic credit portfolio that suffered significant losses commencing in early 2012;

WHEREAS, in the second quarter of 2012, the Federal Reserve Bank of New York (the “Reserve Bank”) commenced a review of the CIO, including the synthetic credit portfolio.

Among other things, the Reserve Bank identified deficiencies in the risk management function's oversight of the risks associated with the synthetic credit portfolio; the model governance function's oversight of the model validation processes relating to the CIO; the finance function's development of appropriate internal financial reporting for the CIO; the internal audit function's assessment of the CIO's internal controls; and senior management's elevation of issues to the board of directors, which did not allow for the board of directors' meaningful consideration of such issues.

WHEREAS, the Bank has consented to the issuance of a Consent Order by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (the "OCC") designed to remedy deficiencies, which the Bank has neither admitted nor denied, identified by the OCC in the Bank's board and management oversight, as well as Bank governance, risk management, model risk management, valuation control, and internal audit programs;

WHEREAS, JPMC, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the "Board of Governors"), and the Reserve Bank have the common goals that JPMC operates in a safe and sound manner on a firmwide basis, particularly regarding activities conducted by the CIO, and that JPMC continues to implement an effective firmwide risk management program regarding trading activities, not including activities undertaken as agent or fiduciary for non-affiliated parties ("Trading Activities"), that is commensurate with JPMC's size, complexity, and risk profile;

WHEREAS, on January 14, 2013, the board of directors of JPMC, at a duly constituted meeting, adopted a resolution authorizing and directing Stephen M. Cutler to enter into this Consent Order to Cease and Desist (the "Order") on behalf of JPMC and consenting to compliance with each and every provision of this Order by JPMC and its institution-affiliated parties, as defined in sections 3(u) and 8(b)(3) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, as amended (the “FDI Act”) (12 U.S.C. §§ 1813(u) and 1818(b)(3)), and waiving any and all rights that JPMC may have pursuant to section 8 of the FDI Act, including, but not limited to: (i) the issuance of a notice of charges; (ii) a hearing for the purpose of taking evidence on any matters set forth in this Order; (iii) judicial review of this Order; (iv) contesting the issuance of this Order by the Board of Governors; and (v) challenging or contesting, in any manner, the basis, issuance, validity, terms, effectiveness or enforceability of this Order or any provision hereof.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby ordered by the Board of Governors that, before the filing of the notices, or taking of any testimony, or adjudication of or finding on any issues of fact or law herein, and without this Order constituting an admission by JPMC of any allegation made or implied by the Board of Governors in connection with this matter, and solely for the purpose of settling this matter without a formal proceeding being filed and without the necessity for protracted or extended hearings or testimony, pursuant to sections 8(b)(1) and (3) of the FDI Act (12 U.S.C. §§1818(b)(1) and 1818(b)(3)), JPMC and its institution-affiliated parties shall cease and desist and take affirmative action as follows:
