Federal Tax Day - Current, I.1, IRS Reminds Select Taxpayers of Deadline (IR-2020-231), (Oct. 8, 2020)

Federal Tax Day - Current

The IRS has reminded taxpayers who filed an extension that the October 15 due date to file their 2019 tax return is near. Taxpayers should file their tax returns on or before the October 15 deadline. Moreover, taxpayers with tax dues should pay as soon as possible to reduce any penalties and interest. However, certain taxpayers may have more time. They include:

- service members and others serving in a combat zone who typically have 180 days after they leave the combat zone to file returns and pay any taxes due; and
- taxpayers in federally declared disaster areas who already had valid extensions.

Further, taxpayers can make their federal tax payments online through various methods. Additionally, taxpayers unable to make full payments can also make use of several payment methods. The Service also reminded those with little or no income and not required to file a tax return (non-filers) that they could be eligible to receive an Economic Impact Payment.
