
Securities Regulation Daily Wrap Up

Click to open document in a browser

By Mark S. Nelson, J.D.

The House-Senate conference committee released the text of its final version of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act. Previously, the Senate passed its version of tax reform by a vote of 51-49; the House passed a similar version of tax reform by a vote of 227-205. The competing tax reform bills (H.R. 1; Senate perfecting amendment) contained a number of significant differences that conferees have now resolved in a Conference Report.

To view a summary of selected tax reform provisions that may impact securities practice, please click here.