2. Type the judge's name in the search field, e.g., Rambo, and click Go.

Key content in a Judge's document

Scroll through the document to see Biographical information, Noteworthy cases with active links to the cases, Attorney Evaluations, Senate Biographical Questionnaire (PDF), Financial Disclosures (PDF), and Courtroom procedures. The courtroom guidelines were prepared in conjunction with the Section of Litigation of the American Bar Association. The guidelines are divided into parts:

- | | |
|--|---------------------------------|
| A. Commencement of Action and General Procedures | C. Criminal Pretrial Procedures |
| B. Civil Pretrial Procedures | D. Trial Procedures |

Recordkeeping Options

To save temporarily in the TRAY

Click Send to Tray. The Document Tray temporarily holds documents. Once in the Tray, you can print it, save it to a file, or save it to a Research Folder. These documents will be removed when you log out.

To PRINT a document

To E-MAIL a document

Click Save/Email on the tool bar. Select Email Document, and then type in/select the email address of the recipient.

Note: Modify your Preference settings to change how the email will be sent: PDF attachment (default), link to document, or text in body of email.

To SAVE a document

Click Save/Email on the tool bar and choose to save as text or a PDF. The text version will save as *.RTF file. The PDF version will retain all of the formatting of the document.

To save to a Research Folder

Click Save/Email, then Save document to Research Folders.

You can access Research Folders at any time by clicking Research Folders on the Quick Bar.

Links to documents stored in Research Folders remain indefinitely until you delete them or delete that specific Research Folder.
