Standards for Recovery Planning by Certain Large Insured National Banks, Insured Federal Savings Associations, and Insured Federal Branches: Notice of Proposed Rulemaking

To

Chief Executive Officers of All National Banks, Federal Savings Associations, and Federal Branches and Agencies;

Department and Division Heads; All Examining Personnel; and Other Interested Parties

Summary

The Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC) is issuing a notice of proposed rulemaking to rescind its guidelines establishing standards for recovery planning by certain large insured national banks, federal savings associations, and federal branches (recovery planning guidelines) at 12 CFR 30, appendix E. The OCC invites the public to comment on all aspects of the proposed rule. Comments are due 30 days after date of publication in the Federal Register.

Note for Community Banks

The proposed rule would not affect OCC-supervised institutions with less than $100 billion in average total consolidated assets.

Highlights

The proposed rule would rescind the recovery planning guidelines that apply to insured national banks, insured federal savings associations, and insured federal branches with at least $100 billion in assets.
