SEARCHING

Searching your preferred libraries is the default.

You also have the option to toggle to search ALL libraries, do an advanced search, or go to the Citations Search tab.

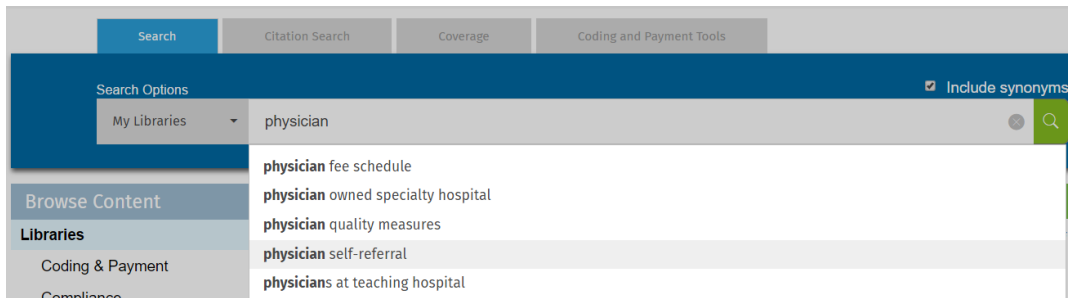

When you browse, you will also have the opportunity to search within Browsed Libraries to which you've navigated. This will be grayed out if you haven't browsed.

Tip: A very special feature of MediRegs is the ability to SAVE a search for future alerting (see more below).

BASIC SEARCH

Enter a search term in the search bar and click search (the magnifying glass). By default, Your Preferred Libraries will be selected; however, you can search all content without library reconfiguration by changing the drop down to All Libraries. See below under Customization & Alerts for steps on setting your content preferences.

Ex: Click the Home button to start fresh and then enter the word PHYSICIAN in the main search box and click the search button.

When you search, the system will autosuggest search terms, select any you wish to use.

REVIEWING & REFINING YOUR SEARCH

The search results screen has a number of features to help you get to your answer quickly.

CITATION SEARCH

Citation search allows you to browse key laws and regulations, or jump to a specific section by citation.

Utilizing the dropdown, you can toggle between different content areas. Notice you can browse the selected title below, or enter a citation to jump directly to it.

Ex: Select Code of Federal Regulations, then enter 42 CFR 413.75

COVERAGE SEARCH

Coverage search allows you to browse and search Local and National Coverage Determinations, as well as coverage articles, and Medicare contractor bulletins. Pre and post-search filters allow you to quickly narrow to the information you need.

Important Note: You can set your state preferences for the Coverage library under My Libraries. Note that there is a Coverage library for current content and an Archived library. Be sure to check on National, as well as whatever states you prefer apply, and to select in the current and archived coverage library. Once you've done this, the Coverage tab (will automatically default to your preferences!)

After you have set your states under My Libraries...Coverage:

- Click Home, and then the Coverage Tab.
Notice how the screen automatically shows your preferred states highlighted.
- Enter a search term
Ex: biofeedback
- If you wish, pre-filter on specific document types on the left, or change which states to search by selecting boxes in the State Selector section.
- Click the green search button

- Post-filter by document type, Contractor type, or state.
Ex: Notice that when you deselect the document type, your search results are reduced to the remaining document types.
- Notice the document results which appear in the main window. You might find it helpful to toggle between Sort by Relevancy vs. Sort by Most Recent.

CODING AND PAYMENT TOOLS SEARCH

Your subscription includes code explorer and payment calculator tools. Click on the Coding and Payment Tools tab and use the drop down menu to select the tool or calculator you want to use.

Here is a short summary of each tool:

Code Explorer	Look up CPT and HCPCS procedure codes and connect to related info.
ICD Explorer	Look up ICD-10-CM diagnosis and ICD-10-PCS codes and connect to related information.
NCCI Code Pair Check	Review Correct Coding Edits for CPT and HCPCS codes.
APC Calculator	Calculate provider-specific payment under the Outpatient Prospective System and connect to the APC CodeBook.
RVU Calculator	Calculate geographic-specific payment under the Physician's Fee Schedule and connect to the Physician Fee CodeBook.
MS-DRG Grouper & Calculator	Determine MS-DRG Grouping and calculate provider-specific payment under the Inpatient Prospective Payment System (Opens in a new window)
NPI/UPIN/DEA	Look up provider identifiers.

SEARCH WITHIN BROWSED CONTENT

You can automatically narrow your search by browsing to an area and searching in that neighborhood.

Ex: Click the HOME button to start over, and then on the left-hand navigation pane, select Libraries... Cases & Administrative Decisions. Notice how the search box now indicates that you will be searching within Browsed Libraries, and the Table of Contents with jump-links appears at the top of the main part of the screen.

SEARCH PREFERRED LIBRARIES

MediRegs lets you select your preferred libraries so that searches and alerts are customized. Set your preferred libraries and try it out by following these steps:

- In the top utility bar, click My Libraries
- Deselect a few libraries and click Apply
- Click the HOME button to start fresh

IMPORTANT! Your subscription starts with coverage and regulatory libraries for all 50 states. Be sure, at a minimum, to expand and select the appropriate states under the COVERAGE and the STATE LAWS section!

Select your state preferences under both COVERAGE and STATE LAWS sections!

The default MY LIBRARIES search will now reflect that selection.

Ex: Search My Libraries for the term PHYSICIAN. Note the number of results. Try the search again by toggling to All Libraries and you will usually see more results.

ADVANCED SEARCH

Use advanced search to connect multiple queries together with Boolean connectors, to search with a specific date parameter, or search across only selected content.

EXECUTING AN ADVANCED SEARCH

Try the following advanced search to demonstrate all of the options available:

- Click the HOME button to start fresh. Next to the main search box, toggle to Advanced Search
- Enter the term Physician

- TIP: Use quotation marks to phrase search*

CREATING A SEARCH ALERT

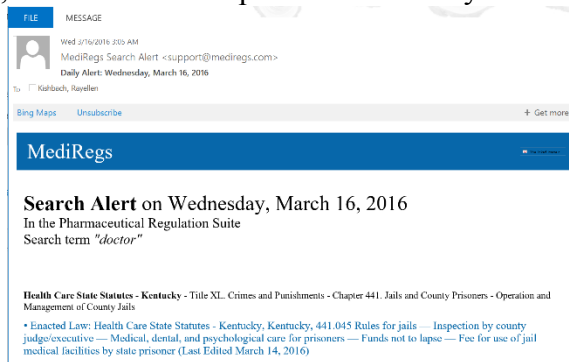

Watch a video tutorial about MediRegs Alerts here:
<https://www.brainshark.com/MediRegs/MRAAlerts?DM=1>

Ex: In any of the examples above, click “Save this Search” and complete the information in the pop up box, including how often you want to be alerted, the title of your search, and the folder into which you’d like your search stored.

Note: you have the ability to save your search to the Saved Searches default folder, create your own folder or save it to a folder you already created.

REVIEWING A SAVED SEARCH ALERT

Here is an example e-mail generated by MediRegs. Notice that it is clearly identified as a Search Alert, and indicates the product in which you stored the search and the search parameter.

The black text indicates the location of the new document and the blue text indicates the specific document. It is a clickable link that takes you directly to that document.

Note that if you've got more than one document matching search criteria, the alert will list them all.

REVIEWING YOUR SAVED SEARCHES

Click on Saved Searches in the top utility bar to see all of the searches you have previously saved, to review or change alerting, or to delete.

Sometimes it is better to simply “walk your way” through the content, either so that you can move through the documents like you would in an e-reader, or so that you can search within a targeted section of content. On the left-hand side of the product, you have the option to navigate through a set of libraries that are listed in alphabetical order. Take a few minutes to click on each library and become familiar with the available resources.

Note that if you have edited your product under My Libraries, the left-hand list will still list ALL libraries.

BROWSING THE LIBRARIES

The library list provides sections of content organized around common workflows. Click on the library heading on the left and then any library to view its contents.

Ex: Click on the Coding & Payment library

As you browse deeper in a library, notice these common features:

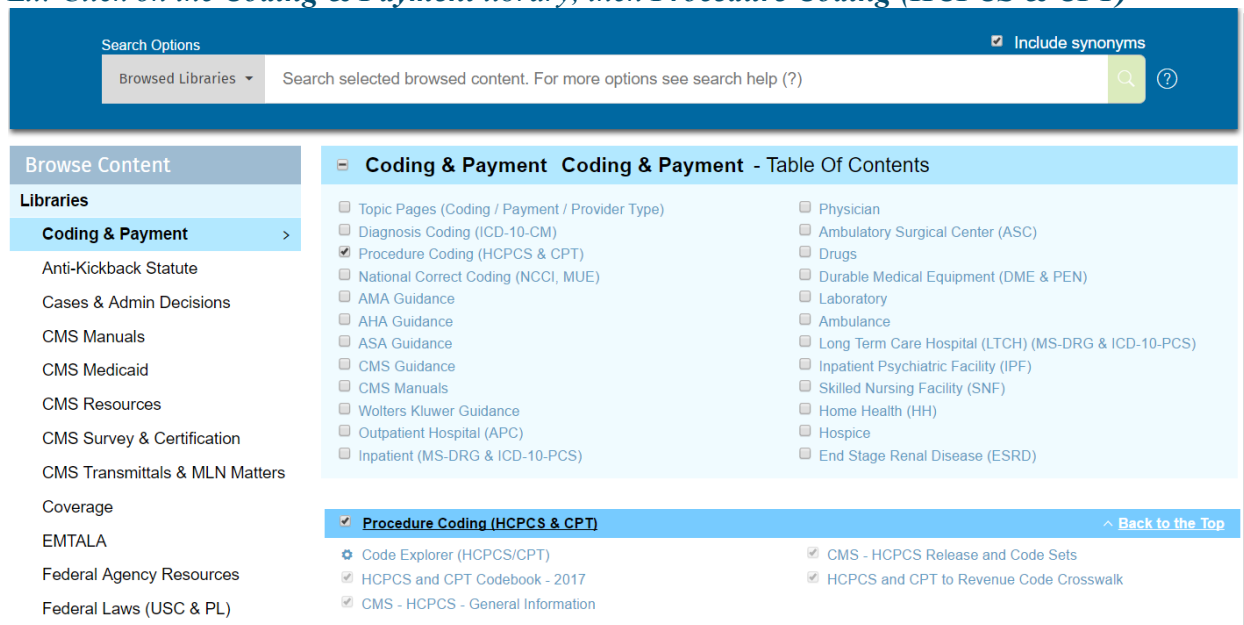

- The search box at the top of the screen automatically changes to allow you to search Browsed Libraries (which would be just within the library subsection you've entered).
 - o Content Select boxes on this page allow you to target your search with more precision.

BROWSING INSIDE A COLLECTION OR TITLE

Inside each library, there are headings and content collections or “titles”. You can click on the title of any collection to reveal its contents.

*Ex: Click on the Coding & Payment library, then Procedure Coding (HCPCS & CPT)

As you browse into a collection, notice these common features:

- The title you've drilled into is highlighted on the left-hand navigation pane.
- The search box at the top of the screen automatically changes to allow you to search Browsed Libraries (which would be just within the collection you've navigated to).

- Selection boxes on this page allow you to target your search with more precision.

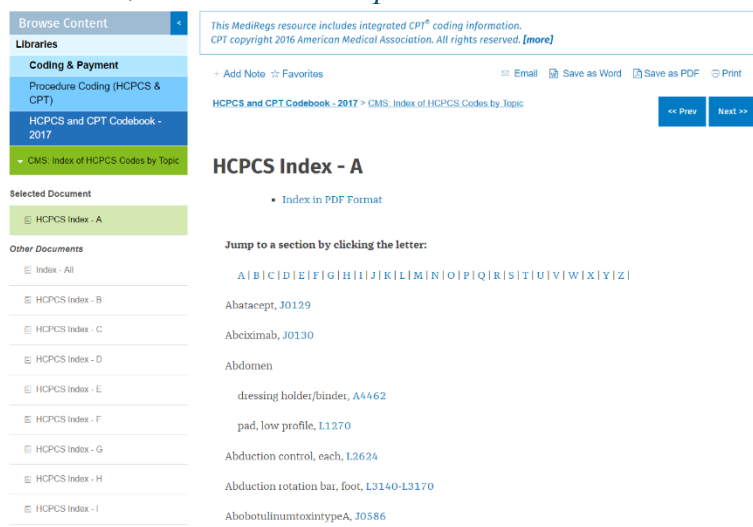

From here, you can drill further into content, or check the boxes to refine your search.

Note: If a title has a gear symbol next to it (as in the Code Explorer in the picture above), that is a practice tool also available under Coding and Payment Tools.

DOCUMENT FEATURES

Anytime you've opened a document, common functions will be available including the ability to email, print, save or favorite a document. You will also have the ability to see where the document "lives" in the product, the option to navigate the table of contents where the document is stored, and move through the collection one document at a time.

Ex: Click on the Coding & Payment library, then Procedure Coding (HCPCS & CPT), then the HCPCS & CPT CodeBook®, scroll down and open the HCPCS Index and select a letter.

As you review the document, notice these common features:

- The title you've drilled into and where this document is situated in the table of contents is highlighted on the left-hand navigation pane.
 - There is also a "breadcrumb trail" at the top of the document that shows how you navigated to get here.
 - The Previous/Next document buttons here allow you to flip to the next and previous document in the table of contents.
- Several document options are available at the very top of the document. See below for more details on each function.
- The search box at the top of the screen automatically hides to give you a full screen view. Click Show search if you wish.
 - Note that at this level, the Browsed Libraries search will be within the entire collection you are in. If you wish to search specific sections of the collection, browse back up a level where you can see the check boxes.

ADDING A NOTE TO A DOCUMENT

When you enter a document, at the top of the screen you have the option to add a note. Write whatever you'd like and click Save & Close.

This note will be associated with this document, and you can get to your notes in the utility bar at the top of the screen by clicking Notes.

If you enter a document that already has a note, the Add Note link will instead appear like this:

The black text indicates the location of the new document and the blue text indicates the specific document. It is a clickable link that takes you directly to that document.

Note that if you are getting too much information, rather than unsubscribing, it is better to log into the product and select My Libraries to reduce your scope. The best practice is to store searches for specific alerts about the concepts that are most important to you.

What's New for the current day is also displayed on your home page. Click on a collection to see specific news from an interesting collection or click View All to see the entire publication or archived news. You can view archived news over the past 3, 15, 30 or 60 days. You can also filter the news by date range and sort by Date Published and Library.

Final rule; delay of effective date: Medicare Program; Advancing Care Coordination Through Episode Payment Models (EPMs); Cardiac Rehabilitation Incentive Payment Model; and Changes to the Comprehensive Care for Joint Replacement Model; Delay of Effective Date

As stated by CMS:

"In accordance with the memorandum of January 20, 2017, from the Assistant to the President and Chief of Staff, entitled «Regulatory Freeze Pending Reviews», this action delays for 60 days from the date of the memorandum the effective date of the rule entitled «Advancing Care Coordination Through Episode Payment Models (EPMs); Cardiac Rehabilitation Incentive Payment Model, and Changes to the Comprehensive Care for Joint Replacement Model» published in the January 3, 2017 Federal Register (82 FR 180). That rule implements three new Medicare Parts A and B episode payment models and a Cardiac Rehabilitation (CR) Incentive Payment model, and implements changes to the existing Comprehensive Care for Joint Replacement model under section 1115A of the Social Security Act (the Act)."
